Dear Pearl:

I have mailed the scholarship forms to you. They include explanatory sheets and the application forms; so both should be sent to each address.

You asked whether or not the scholarship forms should be mailed to all members as well as non-members. It seems to me that the forms should be mailed to both members and non-members, as membership is not a requisite for receipt of the scholarship. All members should receive it, as they would not otherwise know it was available this year.

I hope you have a marvelous time in Europe.

Cordially,

Kathleen Cheape, Chairman
Scholarship Committee
